

Please protect the do not call law. I am in complete support of this law. I felt my privacy was continually being invaded day in and day out. What a relief this law has given my household please do not try fixing what is not broken!!!!!!